I

IN LOVING MEMORY - Judith Elaine Andrews
No words, however kindly meant, can soothe away our pain. Through our memories and heartfelt prayers, we mourn our great loss! In life, you were a daughter, a sister, a wife, a mother, an aunt, a grandmother and a great friend. You were surrounded by those who loved you deeply and that love will be forevermore in depths of our heart. In the comfort of our Lord, may you rest in His love for all eternity.

With love, your family.

home dear ones; All's so happy, all's so bright!

There's perfect joy and beauty In this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief are over, Every restless tossing passed;

I am at peace forever, Safely in heaven at last.

Did you wonder I so calmly Trod the Valley of the Shade?

Oh, but Jesus' love illumined Every dark and fearful glade!

And He came Himself to meet me On the way so hard to tread;

And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could i have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still:

Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's will.

There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idle stand;

Do your work while life remaineth -- You shall rest in Jesus' hand.

When the work is all completed, He will gently call you home:

Oh, the rapture of the meeting! Oh, the joy to see you come!

Sorry for your loss

May 16, 2007

I want to begin by saying first that I am sorry for your loss. I wish that I could take your sorrow away, but I know that I can't. Let me remind you of the greatest promise ever made. The promise that I speak of is found in the words Of Jesus.. "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God, trust also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you, I WILL COME BACK AND TAKE YOU TO BE WITH ME THAT YOU ALSO MAY BE WHERE I AM." (John 14: 1-4) Know that this promise was made by the Greatest Person who ever lived.....Jesus, the Son of the living God, Jesus who is the way, the truth and the life... The Promise was made about the greatest place ever imagined.... "In my Father's house there are many mansions." The promise was made to all who believe.... "Trust in God, trust also in me." The promise was made to bring us comfort.... "Do not let your hearts be troubled." Sherry let these promises allow the sorrow that you feel to give way to joy, joy in the sense that your loving aunt has gone to a better place and even if you can no longer see her, you will continue to remember and love her. God Bless You and your family. Chaplain Ted

I send my love to you and the family. You were very kind to my auntie, and a marriage of 47 years proved that. The best way i can see to always remember auntie is to laugh, cause happiness is what she was made of. She knew how to laugh! Take care, love you Sherry

Memories

all the gray you turned into colors...

Linda Scott

Today is the one year anniversary of your parting. Though I should rejoice that you have gone to be with our Lord, I can't help but wish you still here. There is an emptiness in my life and heart that only your presence can fill. Somewhere in the night sky you are there as a star . Perhaps the gentle evening breeze is the movement of your angelic wings. I love you, Sis.

In MEMORY:

A thousand times we needed you,
A thousand times we cried,
If love alone could have saved you,

You never would have died.
A heart of gold stopped beating,
Two twinkling eyes closed to rest,

God broke our hearts to prove he only took the best.

Never a day goes by,

That your not near in my heart and my soul.

Christmas in Heaven

We've shared our hearts, full of Holiday Cheer and shopped for presents for loved ones this year.

The house is dressed up with garland and lights
That sparkle and shine through the Holiday nights.

But even with all this Holiday bliss
There's someone we lost that we terribly miss.

And as this Christmas Day draws near
We wish with all of our hearts she was here.

She's living her life way up past the stars

somewhere past Jupiter, Saturn and Mars.
She's spending her Christmas in Heaven, you see and last night as I slept, a dream came to me.
She was standing before me, happy and well
she said to me "I have something to tell...
Heaven's more wonderous than you would believe
It's the greatest of gifts I could ever receive.
I'd like for you all to remember the good...
you know that I'd be there if I could.
So don't feel so bad that I'm not there
There are so many memories you can share.
As you gather together, I'm sure you'll find the gifts deep within you that I left behind.
Each one is unique and wrapped brightly in love
They shine from your hearts as I shine from above.

Do you get email in heaven? I hope you do, cause i just wanted you to know I sure love you! There is not a day that goes by that I dont see your smiling face. Your memory of life lives with me every day. Your "Baby Mathew" rest comfortably at the foot of my bed, nestled in the blue blanket you enjoyed so much your last visit here. I make my bed everyday and see the baby and you are then in my thoughts. You start my day with a smile, and whenever I walk by the bed, I always take a hand and gently lie it on the baby, and you are with me again! Will we ever see each over again? I have great hope that we will! I love you auntie. I sure hope you get this email 📧 Forever and always you will be with me. 10/12/07

Dates to remeber have not been my specialty, but todays date is remebered because in the past i've taken for granted that if i didnt get your birthday card out in time that there was always the next day. I dont have a next day to wish you a happy birthday. You were taken from me far to soon, and like a fool i took for granted you would always be there. I hope you know how sorry i am for the birthdays i failed to acknowledge on time, I love you auntie and i sure wish i had another chance to wish you a happy birthday. I believe in my heart that you are happy and without anymore pain, and i believe you know that i loved you then as i love you now, and i will hold you in my heart forever and ever. I am thankful for the time i have had with you but deeply sadened with the time i wont have. FOREVER I will hold you near to me.

Linda Scott(sister)

There are no words to express the emptiness I feel. I know I should rejoice with the knowledge that you are now with GOD in HIS kingdom but

I want to hug you and celebrate this day, your Birthday! It is my hope that you know the sadness and emptiness that those of us left behind have for you.....and always will. Our love for you will never change. For now and all eternity, you will shine in God's light and love.

Deeply loved and miss YOU,

Linda and Nene

I have spend the last few days trying to remember something really outstanding about auntie, and what stands out most is she gave of herself often. She was always a generous person, giving of her heart to everyone she came in contact with. She was a very happy jolly person. She made me and many others laugh till we cried. Its difficult to believe she is not here, but I know she is happy were she is and she is sharing all her love with her new friends. Until i see you again auntie, i will carry you close to my heart, and though i shed a lot of tears from your passing, i smile and laugh over the joy you've given me over and over. I miss you, and love you so very very much! FOREVER and ALWAYS!!

Linda L. Scott,

My dearest sister, all my memories are filled with the love and laughter that we shared. Our bond was strong, and through the years we comforted one another in our earthly sorrows. I grieve for your loss and the knowledge that I will never embrace you or see that sweet smile. No words can I express the love I have for you, or the sorrow that I feel now that you are gone. I love you, sis, and though you are now with our Lord, you will always be no farther from me then my heart.

*Today, Tomorrow, Forever,
Your "sissypoo", Linda*

Life Story

every hour, every thought, every smile...

August 29, 1940

Born in United States on August 29, 1940.

May 13, 2007

How does one compose a Life Story to include all the thoughts and memories that are held by many? Pages upon pages would need to be written by all that were touched by her. Simply put and very brief, this is how I saw and will remember my dear sister:

Judy was the "hug" that everyone needed. She was sensitive to everyones woes, and wept with them. She loved to laugh and even now her laughter rings in my ears. Her soul was gentle, peace loving, forgiving, sincere, and a believer in GOD. She gave of herself over and over, time and time again. Judy was a daughter any parent would be proud of, An older sister who's bonds were strong with her sibling; up to Judy's last breath ~~and now beyond. She was a Mother with unlimited love. Judy's love for children opened the door for her to share her love with the less fortunate by being a foster parent to many, and ultimately adopted her youngest daughter, Debra. My heart feels empty and stomped on with her loss so i cannot imagine the grief her three children are suffering in their time of loss for their "MOM"

Last but certainly not least, Judy was a wife to her sweetheart "barobbit" (BOB) for 47 short years. Their partnership was built on a foundation of love, dreams, trust and respect to one another. To him I say, " I am so sorry you have lost your love, "your buddy". Though you mourn the loss of a life long partner, I mourn the loss of a life long sister. We grieve for the same person that touched our lives so deeply that we wonder how we're going to go on in her absence, but in time, we will."

For all of the friends Judy had over her life time, I am sure they too felt an emptiness that will on occasion resurface, and then immediately be replaced with a smile as they remember her fun loving nature and her gentle soul.

Well~~~ sweet, dear Sis, I hope you liked what I wrote~~ and if not, I have no objections if you sit at my computer and rewrite the entire tribute.

In Remembrance of my Sister, Judy and now carried within the depths of my heart, "I Love You, Happy Mothers' day, Linda
